Security Academy Training and Development Specialist I

Chris has been involved in the education industry for over 12 years. He began his career in teaching in 1999 as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Bulgaria, shortly after graduating from Michigan State University with a B.A. in Journalism.

Upon returning to his home state of Michigan from Bulgaria, Chris pursued and earned his teaching certificate from Saginaw Valley State University and then relocated to Phoenix, Arizona. He taught in both middle school and high school before transitioning into the non-profit arena as a project manager. Chris also worked in the higher education industry for several years and earned his Master's degree from his former employer, Grand Canyon University.

In May of 2010, Chris relocated to the Atlanta area. He began his career with the USA Security Academy for U.S. Security Associates in June 2010.

Due to his years as an Educator, Chris brings a wealth of experience in curriculum and training development to the USA Security Academy.
